

Royal Power™

Undiluted Triple Strength

This formula is the ultimate in nourishing deeply and supplying nutritional reserves for the body to rely upon. Over the course of an adult's lifespan of eating poorly, sedentary lifestyle, and living in a stressful and toxic environment, a major toll is taken on the body. This is why North American Herb & Spice has created Royal Power, a whole food supplement for everyone seeking optimal nutrition.

Designed to have the purest, active and most potent ingredients available, Royal Power contains Royal Jelly, wild Rosemary, wild Sage and Camu Camu berries. Royal Jelly provides one of nature's most important creatures the queen bee with her vast fertility, healthy size, and unusually long life.

The nutritional profile of Royal Power is amazing. Ranking high on the vitamin charts with Royal Jelly are the B-vitamins, especially thiamine (B-1), riboflavin (B-2), niacin (B-3), pantothenic acid (B-5), B-6 and biotin. Our Royal Jelly contains 6% 10-HDA (10-hydroxy-trans-2-decenoic acid), the maximum strength and most active ingredient you can obtain from Royal Jelly. Other important nutrients in Royal Jelly are the vast amounts of minerals, amino acids, enzymes and natural steroids. Taking Royal Power also supports quality farming by avoiding feeding bees sugar, specifically corn syrup, which most commercial farming practices. Natural bee keeping also supports the dwindling bee population, which is affecting our country's agriculture.

Further enhancing the nutrition of Royal Power is the wild Rosemary and Sage, plus wild Camu Camu berries, which are one of the highest sources of vitamin C, a full spectrum natural form. The Camu Camu berries are ranking at the top of the list for vitamin C supplements, which include our Purely-C and Amaz-a-Power products. These berries are loaded with other important micro minerals, vitamins and enzymes all crucial for daily needs.

Royal Power is an important supplement to add to your daily regimen of health. This product was formulated to ensure you are receiving the best ingredients, the purest and the most powerful nature has to offer. Made by bees for royalty, made by us for you!
